

House Resolution No. 1306

Whereas, the members of the Missouri House of Representatives hold in high esteem those Show-Me State educators who admirably help students obtain the knowledge, skills, and experiences necessary to become lifelong learners, involved citizens, and future societal leaders; and

Whereas, Anne Marie TerMaat of High Ridge, Missouri, has attained considerable distinction as a teacher at Geggie Elementary School in the Rockwood R-VI School District of Saint Louis County; and

Whereas, Anne TerMaat recently enhanced her already impressive record of achievement when she was selected as the Geggie Elementary School Teacher of the Year in light of her exceptional dedication and professionalism; and

Whereas, in addition to her classroom activities, Anne TerMaat serves her students and peers on the Yearbook Committee, Sunshine Committee, and Building Leadership Team; wrote a successful grant from the Rockwood Foundation for a student-created mural; and was nominated for a ROSE Award; and

Whereas, Anne TerMaat uses differentiated and accelerated teaching methods in order to meet the needs of every student, and she always works with students to create projects that involve a variety of artistic media; and

Whereas, Anne TerMaat also deserves mention of her participation with Crown Financial Ministries as a teacher, a Women's Bible Study as a leader, and the Missouri Art Education Association and National Art Education Association as a member; and

Whereas, the beloved wife of Brian TerMaat, Anne TerMaat is justifiably proud also to be known as the devoted daughter of Bob and Donna Middendorf and the wonderful daughter-in-law of Dwayne and Marcella TerMaat; and

Whereas, it is fitting and proper that the Missouri House of Representatives should pause in its diverse legislative actions in order to acknowledge milestone events in the lives and careers of such outstanding Missouri educators as Anne TerMaat:

Now, therefore, be it resolved that we, the members of the Missouri House of Representatives, Ninety-fourth General Assembly, join unanimously to applaud the selection of Anne TerMaat as Teacher of the Year at Geggie Elementary School and to convey to her this legislative body's most heartfelt best wishes for continued personal and professional success for many more years to come; and

Be it further resolved that the Chief Clerk of the Missouri House of Representatives be instructed to prepare a properly inscribed copy of this resolution for presentation to Anne Marie TerMaat of High Ridge, Missouri.
